VOTE FOR NEW BOARD OFFICERS

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, we unfortunately could not host our spring dinner event and general membership meeting again this year. As a result, the Board of Directors voted to conduct the election of new Board officers via email. The slate of candidates is as follows:

Vice President/President-elect: Bobette Bouton. Dr. Bouton is currently serving as a Director on the Board, and is an associate professor in APSU's Eriksson College of Education.

Secretary: Dr. Somaditya "Soma" Banerjee, assistant professor of history at APSU.

Treasurer: Dr. Florian Gargaillo, assistant professor of literature at APSU.

Directors (3 slots available):

- Mr. Mark Chester, account manager for Ajax Distributing and an APSU alum;
- Dr. Ellen Kanervo, APSU professor emeritus of communication and director of the Clarksville-Montgomery County Arts & Heritage Development Council; and
- Mr. Jim Mann, retired bank executive.

To vote "yes" or "no" on the slate of candidates, please reply to this email (woodwardlibrarysociety@apsu.edu) by Wednesday, June 23, 2021. If you do not have access to email, you may call in your vote to the Woodward Library office at 931-221-7618.

If approved, the candidates will replace outgoing Board members Nick Tooley, Andrea Goble, Amelia Allen Hartz, Marsha Lyle-Gonga, and Andrea Spofford, whose terms expire on June 30, 2021. Our sincere thanks and gratitude to Nick, Andrea, Amelia, Marcia, and Andrea for your dedicated service to the Woodward Library Society and APSU.

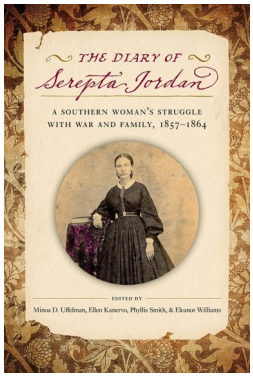
A Visit from the Woodward Family

Director Joe Weber with the Woodward Family

We had special guests in the Library this week! The youngest son of Dean Felix G. Woodward, Fred Woodward, brought his family by on Monday for a tour of the building and a look at some pictures from our archives. Accompanying Fred was his daughter Kate Woodward Vanderpool, her daughters Molly and Lily, and Susan Price Bennett (APSU '65).

The library was officially named the Felix G. Woodward Library on August 13, 1971, as a tribute to the Dean of Faculty, who passed away on July 11, 1971, after serving at APSU for 42 years. This year marks the 50th anniversary of the naming of the building.



We are looking forward to bringing back in-person events! Minoa Uffelman is slated to present our Fall Program where she will discuss her latest book, The Diary of Serepta Jordan: A Southern Woman's Struggle with War and Family, 1857–1864.

Congratulations to Board member Dr. Harold A. Young for the publication of two book reviews! His review of Hegel and Empire: From Postcolonialism to Globalism is published in the Journal of International and Global Studies (Vol. 10, Issue 2), and his review of The Racial Politics of Division: Interethnic Struggles for Legitimacy in Multicultural Miami is published in the National Review of Black Politics (Vol. 2, Issue 2).
