SUMMER 2022

"We know that in September, we will wander through the warm winds of summer's wreckage. We will welcome summer's ghost."
– Henry Rollins

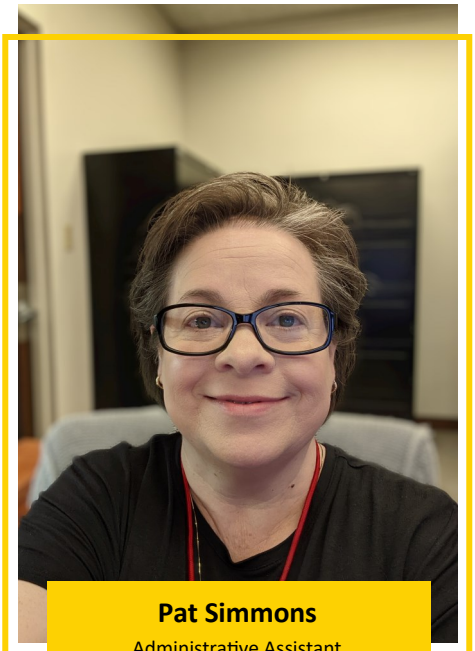
What's New?

Stephanie Klaus
University Archives and Special Collections Assistant

At the end of August, we welcomed Stephanie as the University Archives and Special Collections assistant! She is a graduate of Murray State University where she earned a bachelor's in history in 2019. She attended grad school at Western Illinois University where she earned a master's in museum studies in 2021.

Scott Shumate
Coordinator of Resource Management

Scott has worked at the Woodward Library since 2008, and recently accepted the position as coordinator of Resource Management! He earned a bachelor's in computer science and information technology from APSU, and earned a master's in information sciences at the University of Tennessee in 2019.



Pat Simmons
Administrative Assistant

Pat joined the team in late August after accepting the position as the administrative assistant! She earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from Mississippi University for Women in 1989, and a master's in the Art of Teaching from Belhaven University in Jackson, Mississippi in 2005.

Membership Renewal

Welcome to the 2022-2023 membership period! If you haven't renewed your membership yet, there's still plenty of time. We now have a convenient way to pay by credit card. You can access the site by visiting the Woodward Library Society Membership page or by clicking on the Credit Card Payment link. You can also pay by credit card over the phone by calling 931-221-7618. To renew by mail, simply click on the Membership Form, fill it out, and mail it along with your check to the address listed on the form. Thank you for your dedicated and loyal support of the Felix G. Woodward Library and Austin Peay State University!

The Once and Future Witches

The final event in the Let's Talk About It (LTAI): Women's Suffrage grant program will be at 5 p.m. on Thursday, September 29 at the Office of Equity, Access and Inclusion (OEAI), located at 416 College Street.

The featured book is The Once and Future Witches by Alix Harrow. Dr. Jill Eichhorn and Professor Elaine Berg will lead the discussion.

The program is sponsored by the American Library Association (ALA) and the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH).

This event is free and open to the public. Reading the program book is highly recommended, but not a requirement for attending the event. For more information, visit: https://libguides.apsu.edu/womenssuffrage or contact program coordinator, Jenny Harris, at 931-221-7914 or harrisj@apsu.edu.

Interim Director of Library Services

Elaine Berg

The search for a new director of library services continues, and the Woodward Library is in great hands with Elaine Berg as the interim director. She has worked at the Woodward Library for the last 22 years. She earned bachelor's degrees from Presbyterian College where she double majored in history and English. She attended the University of South Carolina where she earned a Master of Librarianship.

Fall Program

Details about the Fall Program are still being worked out, and we'll pass along that information as soon as plans are finalized. A quick reminder that The Clarksville Montgomery County Dolly Parton Imagination Library is hosting a Grown-up Spelling Bee from 6 -9 p.m. on September 27 at the Customs House Museum.
