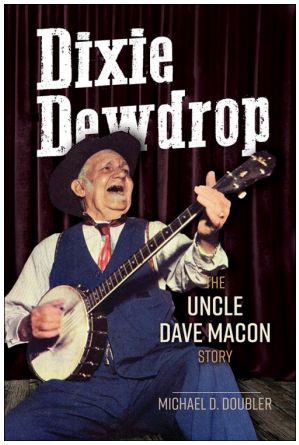
A Celebration of Scholarship

Tuesday, February 19

Join us for the Celebration of Scholarship Reception at 5 p.m. on Tuesday, February 19 when we recognize the scholarly and creative achievements of the APSU faculty, staff, administration, emeriti, students, and alumni who published between January 2017 and December 2018. Faculty members will give brief presentations about their research and publications. The reception will be held in the Woodward Library Room 232. Invitations will be forthcoming soon.



Spring Social

Saturday, April 6

The Society's annual spring friend-raising and fundraising event is scheduled for Saturday, April 6 in the Franklin Room of the F&M Bank. The featured speaker this year is Michael Doubler, author of Dixie Dewdrop: The Uncle Dave Macon Story and great-grandson of the Grand Ole Opry's first major superstar. Doubler will be accompanied by his brother, banjo player John Doubler, who will perform some of Uncle Dave Macon's songs. Check your mailbox for invitations in February.

2018 Homecoming

In October, the Woodward Library took home SECOND PLACE at the Homecoming: Alumni Village Tailgate event! The theme this year was Undefeatable Superheroes, and the Library featured a photo booth with Wonder Woman and Iron Man. The props included giant superhero books with fun titles like The Credible Hulk Always Cites His Sources! and Reading Is the Best Defense. The photo booth was a hit, and the children (along with many adults) enjoyed selecting their favorite superhero mask to wear in the pictures. Everyone who stopped by the booth received bookmarks and stickers.

Staff Spotlight

Jarrod Jackson

Jarrod Jackson is a native of Clarksville who began working in Access Services in 2015. His job duties include assisting patrons at the Circulation Desk and maintaining users' accounts, the print collections, and the Library's friendly disposition. He is a musician and former member of the GOMB and APSU Jazz Collegians, as well as numerous musical acts around Clarksville and Nashville. For the last two years he has played guitar at the Society's Spring Social. In his spare time, Jarrod enjoys playing and writing music, binging TV shows, watching horror films, reading, wine, politics, cooking, and listening to synth-pop and heavy metal. He is an animal lover and pet daddy to two dogs and a little black cat. Jarrod has plans to see what happens tomorrow.
