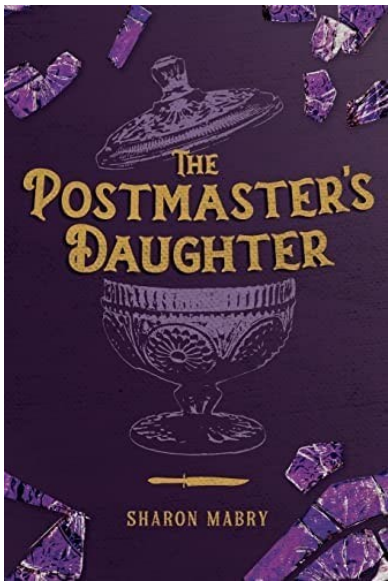
2023 Winter Program



Last month, the Woodward Library Society had the pleasure of hosting an author talk with Dr. Sharon Mabry who discussed her latest book The Postmaster's Daughter. Attendees were treated to a fascinating discussion about Dr. Mabry's writing and publishing journey, her passion for antique cars, and her experience with the culture and language that played such a large part in the book.

One of the highlights of the evening was when composer Dr. George Mabry played a recording of "I Never Knew a Revenuer," his traditional folk song that was featured in the book.

Overall, the author talk was a huge success and left attendees feeling inspired and entertained. We are so grateful to Dr. Mabry for sharing her time and expertise with us and for bringing The Postmaster's Daughter to life. We want to thank everyone who attended, and we hope to see you at our next event!

CALL FOR BOARD MEMBERS

The Woodward Library Society Board of Directors is responsible for the overall direction and administration of the organization. Open positions include vice president/president-elect, secretary, treasurer, and three directors. If you are interested in serving in any of these capacities or you know someone who would be interested in serving, please contact Vice President Kirsten Licari or Director of Library Services Martina Malvasi.

Thank You, Society Members!

We want to take a moment to express our gratitude for your continued support of the Woodward Library. Your contributions, whether in the form of time, money, or advocacy, have been instrumental in helping us fulfill our mission of serving our students and the APSU community. As we look ahead, we remain committed to providing the highest quality resources and services possible. We're grateful to have you by our side as we continue to grow and evolve, and we look forward to a bright and promising future.
